

GRM International is hosting the Certificate in Monitoring and Evaluation from 11-22 May in Bangkok. This course will provide skills and knowledge across all areas of M&E and led by world leading facilitators. Every participant will be provided with an iPad with all the teaching materials and reference materials for further self-study. GRM is part of the GRM Futures Group, world leaders in M&E and has managed thousands of assignments and projects over the last 50 years.

Registration details are available at www.grminternational.com/training or email training@grmfuturesgroup.com

Course Overview

The Certificate in Monitoring and Evaluation is an assessed 10 day course spread over two weeks with a weekend break in the middle.

Participants will gain the knowledge and skills to be competent in M&E, judged by being able to demonstrate knowledge, attitude and skills as documented in the GRM M&E Competency map.

The course will be taught by M&E practitioners and make full use of real examples and case studies with plenty of opportunity for practical exercises.

Accommodation with breakfast included

All materials provided on a take away iPad

On-going support & help

Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course you should be able to:

- Develop and manage a results based M&E approach;
- State the purpose, scope and standards for evaluation;
- Undertake situation analysis;
- Develop a problem and objectives Trees;
- Select strategies (objectives) and results Chain
- Construct a Logical Framework;
- Develop a Theory of Change;
- Write and verify indicators;
- Develop a monitoring system;
- Develop a M&E Framework;
- Develop a M&E Plan;
- Use a full range of data collection methods;
- Ensure data quality;
- Analyse data;
- Design and implement baselines and evaluations;
- Communicate results;
- Produce reports.

Course Facilitators

Stefan Dahlgren

Stefan has over 25 years experience of development and humanitarian support, mainly at Swedish Sida, alternating between evaluation and project planning at Sida HQ and managing operations abroad. This experience involved working in many countries across Asia and Africa. Stefan has been a team leader for evaluations of country programmes, infrastructure, health, evaluation management and handled large-scale, joint evaluations on humanitarian support.

Leonie Barnes

Leonie brings to her teaching a long career with the United Nations, Swiss Government and international NGOs. This includes service in Sudan, Kosovo, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Sri Lanka and various other countries. Leonie is fun, engaging, passionate and committed to sharing her knowledge and expertise in a way that helps the learning stick.

David Hearle

David Hearle is very well recognised in international development as an M&E specialist with 32 years' experience in Africa, Asia, Australasia, Europe, the Middle East and, South America. This has involved working as project director, team leader, consultant and trainer in 28 countries for many of the UN agencies, World Bank, EU, numerous bilateral donors, including DFID, SDC, GTZ and many national and international NGOs. David is the Director of the GRM Futures Academy and previously Director of the Effective Development Group.

Notes:

- Course fee is US$ 5800.
- Course fee includes: Course fee includes: course & materials, lunch and refreshments, bed and breakfast during the course.
- 10% discount - early bird registration for payments received 4 weeks before course date.
- 15% discount to past participants of GRM Futures Group courses. 20% discount for full-time students, self-funding/freelance participants and Local/ Small NGOs.
- Group discounts are available, please contact us directly via email.

For Enquiries & Registration Contact:

GRM International, Turnberry House, 100 Bunhill Row, London, EC1Y 8ND, United Kingdom

Tel: +44 20 7250 0556 - Fax: +44 20 7336 8742 – Email: training@grmfuturesgroup.com

Website: www.grminternational.com/training